

IMPOTENCE

CASE #1

A 47-year-old man reports a softening of his erections and an inability to maintain them, that has been getting worse over the last several months.

- 1. How would you classify cases of erectile dysfunction?
- 2. What are the risk factors of Ed?
- 3. What are the key components of sexual history?
- 4. What components of the general medical history and physical examination should you pay particular attention to?
- 5. What laboratory tests should be done?
- 6. How should the patient be treated?
- 7. What are the major differences between the oral Phosphodiesterase Inhibitors?
- 8. What are the contraindications to Phosphodiesterase inhibitors?
- 9. What are the most common adverse effects of Phosphodiesterase Inhibitors?
- 10. What is the proportion of patients who report improved erections on sildenafil relative to placebo?